

DAILY BUSINESS UPDATE from The Boston Globe and boston.com

Get up-to-the-minute Globe Business Updates | More Business News

Friday, August 10, 2007

Blue Cross opens "green" building

Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts unveiled a new "green" office building this week on the Rockland-Hingham line.

Hasbro partners with Electronic Arts

Electronic Arts Inc. will create digital versions of Hasbro, Inc. games and toys like Monopoly, Scrabble and Littlest Pet Shop, the entertainment companies said today.

Chicken chain taps geoVue

GeoVue announced today that Pollo Campero, a Latin America-based chain of chicken restaurants, is deploying its optimization software.

Sonus now in Nasdaq compliance

Sonus Networks Inc. said today that it has been notified by the Nasdaq Stock Market that Sonus is now in compliance with Nasdaq listing requirements.

InnoCentive expands staff

InnoCentive Inc. announced new hires to meet increased demand for its online Open Innovation Marketplace.

Double-Take prices IPO shares

Double-Take Software Inc. announced today the pricing of its public offering of shares of common stock at $16 per share before underwriting discounts and commissions.

Condos slated for former Red Cross HQ

Construction is underway to turn the former Red Cross Boston headquarters into a condominium building called the Lofts at 285 Columbus, the project's developer said.

Get ready for Mass. tax holiday

Best Buy Co., the consumer electronics chain, is one of many retailers gearing up for the upcoming sales-tax-free shopping weekend.

See how fast

Comcast Workplace
can make your business grow.

- ▶ Unparalleled reliability
- ▶ Toll-free support 24x7
- ▶ Static IP addresses and web hosting available

Click to learn more ▶

comcast
Business Services