Names

Opening with a gang

Boston Residential Group CEO Curtis Kemeny opened his posh, two-story penthouse at 360 Newbury the other night to help Boston Conservatory celebrate the opening of its production of "West Side Story" and mark the classic musical's 50th anniversary. The pre-show soiree drew legal eagle B.J. Krintzman, wealth management maven Alice Finn, Battery Ventures' Ollie Curme, and former Houghton Mifflin honcho Nader Darehshori. And how's this for a highlight? Jamie Bernstein Thomas — daughter of legendary conductor and composer Leonard Bernstein — read letters her dad sent home about working on the show.
